

Notice

The NSS and RRC units of DS Govt. Degree College for Women, Ongole are organizing a visit to an old age home on 31-12-2020. This activity aims to promote social responsibility and develop a sense of empathy towards the elderly.

The visit will take place at the old age home, and we will have the opportunity to spend time with the elderly residents, listen to their stories, and learn from their experiences. It will be an excellent opportunity to connect with the elderly, understand their needs and challenges, and show them that we care.

The event will be held near the college premises, and all necessary arrangements have been made to ensure a safe and comfortable visit..

All students are informed to participate in this activity, as it is an excellent opportunity to give back to the community and develop life skills. Please feel free to contact the NSS and RRC coordinators for more information.

Name of the activity	: Visit to Old Age Home
Date	: 31-12-2020
No. of students attended	: 40
Venue	: DS Govt. Degree College for Women, Ongole
Organized by	: NSS &amp; RRC
Introduction:

The visit to the old age home was organized by the Red Ribbon Club (RRC) of DS Govt. Degree College for Women, Ongole in collaboration with the National Service Scheme (NSS) on 31st December 2020. The aim of this visit was to create awareness among students about the problems faced by the elderly and to sensitize them towards the needs of the elderly.

Activities:

The visit was attended by 40 students who actively participated in the activities organized by the RRC. The students interacted with the elderly residents of the Maathru Vaathsalya Old Age Home in Ongole and learned about their life experiences. They asked the elderly about their daily routine, their hobbies, and their living conditions in the old age home.

The students also distributed fruits among the elderly residents and donated a 25kg rice bag on behalf of the RRC. The co-ordinator of the RRC, Smt. V-Jameela, led the donation drive and highlighted the importance of such social service activities.

Outcomes:

The visit was a great learning experience for the students. They learned about the challenges faced by the elderly and the importance of treating them with respect and dignity. The students realized that the elderly need emotional support as well as physical support, and the visit helped them to develop empathy and understanding towards the elderly.

The visit also had a positive impact on the elderly residents of the old age home. They appreciated the students' gesture of kindness and were happy to share their life experiences with them. The visit brought joy to their lives, and they felt valued and appreciated by the younger generation.

Conclusion:

The visit to the old age home was a successful initiative by the RRC and NSS. It created a sense of social responsibility among the students and helped them to develop a compassionate and empathetic outlook towards the elderly. The activity also promoted community engagement and highlighted the importance of serving the society. Such activities are crucial for creating a better society where everyone is respected and valued.
