Introduction: The outreach activity- Community Service Project was conducted by a team of six B.A students from DS Government Degree College for Women, Ongole under the guidance of Smt. P. Yamini Ammaji. The aim of the project was to conduct a door-to-door survey to assess the status of women's education in various areas and to raise awareness about the importance of education among women.

Participants: The team of six students actively participated in the outreach activity. They were responsible for conducting the door-to-door survey, analyzing the data, and conducting awareness programs in the respective areas.

Event Coordinator: Smt. P. Yamini Ammaji was the event coordinator. She provided guidance and support to the team of students throughout the project.

Places Visited: The team visited various places, including the 19th Ward, Ongole, Pakala, P.C. Thanda, Markapur, Vallur, and Islampet. They conducted the survey and awareness programs in these areas.

Activities: The team conducted a door-to-door survey to collect data on the status of women's education in their respective areas. They analyzed the data and found that many women were not receiving proper education due to various reasons such as poverty, lack of awareness, and social norms.

Based on the analysis, the team conducted awareness programs to educate women about the importance of education and how it can empower them. They also provided information about government schemes and scholarships available for women's education.

The team distributed pamphlets and organized interactive sessions to address the queries and doubts of the participants. They also encouraged women to enroll in schools and colleges and pursue their dreams.

Conclusion: The outreach activity- Community Service Project conducted by the team of six B.A students from DS Government Degree College for Women, Ongole was a successful event. The team was able to collect valuable data on the status of women's education and raise awareness about the importance of education among women in various areas. The project aimed to empower women by providing them with education and enabling them to make informed decisions. The project has been able to make a positive impact on the lives of many women in these areas.
