Our campus provides an enriching environment that supports academic pursuits, research endeavors, artistic expression, and physical well-being.

Holistic Development: DSGDCW is not just about academic excellence; it's about nurturing well-rounded individuals. We encourage our students to participate in extracurricular activities, cultural events, community service, and leadership initiatives. These experiences help them develop essential life skills such as teamwork, communication, time management, and empathy.

Alumni Success: The success of our college is best reflected in the achievements of our alumni. Our graduates have made significant contributions to various fields including academia, business, healthcare, social service, arts, and more. They are the living proof of the transformative education offered at DSGDCW and serve as role models for current and future students

Join us at DSGDCW College for Women and embark on a journey of self-discovery, empowerment, and greatness. Discover your potential, chase your dreams, and become a part of our legacy of excellence. Together, we're shaping a future where empowered women shape a better world.

Internship

Internships play a crucial role in a student's education and career development. They provide practical experience, exposure to real-world situations, and opportunities to apply theoretical knowledge in a professional setting. Here's why internships are important and how they might be regulated according to APSHE.

First internship (April-May after 1st year examinations):Community Service Project

Assessment Model for the for the First Internship (April-May after 1st year Examinations):

The assessment is to be conducted for 100 marks. The number of credits assigned is 4. Later as per the present practice the marks are converted into grades and grade points to Include finally in the SGPA and CGPA

Each student is required to maintain an individual logbook, where he/she is supposed to record day to day activities. The project log is assessed on an individual basis, thus allowing for individual members within groups to be assessed this way. The assessment will take into consideration the individual student's involvement in the assigned work

Assssment Model for the second Internship (April-May after 2nd year Examinations):

There will be only internal evaluation for this internship. Each faculty member is to be assigned with 10 to 15 students depending upon availability of the faculty members. The faculty members will act as a faculty-mentor for the group and is in-charge for the learning activities of the students and also for the comprehensive and continuous assessment of the students.

Each student is required to maintain an individual logbook, where he/she is supposed to record day to day activities. The project log is assessed on an individual basis, thus allowing for individual members within groups to be assessed this way. The assessment will take into consideration the individual student's involvement in the assigned work.

Third internship (5th/6thSemester period):

During the entire 5th /6th Semester, the student shall undergo Apprenticeship Internship/ On In Job Training. This is to ensure that the students develop hands on technical skills which will be of great help in facing the world of work.

WORLD POPULATION DAY:

The Department of Economics has observed the World population day on 11th July, 2023. On this occasion, in charge of the department Ch. Srinivasa Rao delivered a speech about the issues of global population and over population. It is an important global awareness day that highlights the significance of population issues and their impact on various aspects of society and the world at large. The day serves as an opportunity to raise awareness, promote discussion, and take actions to address the challenges and opportunities associated with the world's population.

Principal, Dr.D.Kalyani stated that World Population Day serves as a reminder that a balanced and informed approach to population management is crucial for achieving global development, ensuring social equity, and safeguarding the planet's resources for future generations' staff members and students actively participated in this program.

Observation of Chandrayaan-3 by College Students and Staff

The observation event organized at our college for college students and staff to witness the Chandrayaan-3 mission. The event aimed to foster interest and enthusiasm in space exploration and scientific endeavors among the attendees

Chandrayaan-3, India's third lunar exploration mission, presented an excellent opportunity to engage students and staff in a live space observation event. The mission's objective is to further explore the lunar surface through advanced scientific instruments.

Organizing a suitable venue with proper seating arrangements, audio-visual equipment, and refreshments.

On the day of the event, participants gathered at the designated venue. The execution included:

Introduction: A brief introduction to the Chandrayaan-3 mission, its importance in lunar exploration, and its potential scientific discoveries.

Live Screening: Streaming the live broadcast of key mission events, including launch, lunar orbit insertion, and other critical maneuvers.

Expert Talks: Inviting experts from the field of space science to give short talks on lunar exploration, space technology, and their experiences.

The Chandrayaan-3 observation event at our college effectively engaged college students and staff, fostering interest, curiosity, and inspiration in the field of space exploration. The successful execution of the event encourages the institution to consider organizing similar events in the future to promote scientific learning and exploration. Both students and staff displayed high levels of enthusiasm and interest throughout the event, actively engaging in discussions and asking insightful questions.

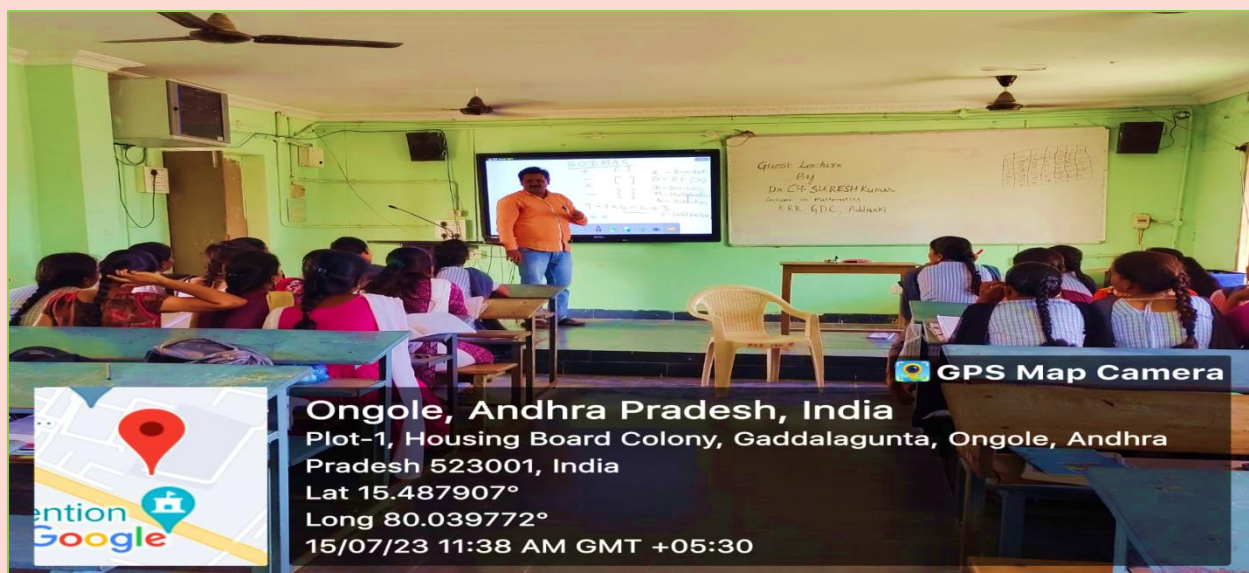

GUEST LECTURE
BY
DEPARTMENT OF MATHEMATICS

The Department of the Mathematics has conducted a guest lecture on 15/07/2023 for I year Students on Analytical Skills by Dr. Ch. Suresh Kumar, lecturer in mathematics, KRK Government degree college, Addanki.

The lecture aimed to familiarize the I year students with the concept of analytical skills and their significance in various domains, including computer science and to improve the students' critical thinking skills by providing them with practical techniques to analyze information, evaluate its reliability, and draw logical conclusions and also equip the students with effective problem-solving strategies, emphasizing the importance of breaking down complex problems into smaller components and exploring multiple solutions

QUIZ BY USING PICKERS

BY

DEPT OF ENGLISH

On July 18, 2023, the Department of English organized a quiz using the Plickers platform as a part of our ongoing efforts to engage and assess students' understanding of the course material. The quiz was held in Room No 3 and 1 BZC 18 students participated.

The quiz comprised 5 multiple-choice questions based on the syllabus covered in the previous [Time Period]. Plickers, a mobile-based response system, was utilized, allowing students to provide their answers by holding up unique QR-coded cards. Our faculty members compiled the questions, which covered a range of topics such as Tenses, prepositions.

The Plickers quiz garnered enthusiastic participation from students. The interactive nature of the platform encouraged all students to actively engage in the quiz, and the real-time display of responses added an element of excitement.

The quiz results provided valuable insights into students' comprehension levels. This data will be used to tailor future instruction and address areas of concern.
